Dear Cy,

I very much enjoyed our breakfast last week.

As indicated, I think it would be very useful for you to meet with the President, and I requested an appointment for you. Unfortunately, the unfolding events in the Middle East and the preparations for the upcoming trip have combined to decimate the President's schedule this week.

The timing is unfortunate, for I know the President would have liked to talk to you. I hope we can do better in the future.

Warm regards,

Henry A. Kissinger
